

Prader-Willi syndrome is a rare and complex condition and its very rarity can make it difficult for others to understand.

PWSA UK is the only Association working with Prader-Willi syndrome families in the UK, and joining our PWS community can help and support you whatever stage of your journey.

PWSA UK is here for you, to encourage and empower you every step of the way.

Whatever your query or issue, our friendly and experienced team are here to listen, and to help you.
