

Early Questions

Who?

Where?

What's happening?

What is she doing?

How did you feel?

What did they find?

Has this happened to you?

What do you use it for?

What can you do with it?

Find one that can fly/bounce/be eaten?

What did you say?

What did you do?

He fell in the.....?

Middle Questions

What does it mean?

What could they say?

What's going to happen next?

Tell me how?

What is it made of?

What is a....?

What is in...?

Tell me about this picture in one sentence?

Tell me about this picture using the word....

Tell me a.....that is not a.....

Find something you can...but is not a....

Why? (simple why questions)

When? (about simple concepts, e.g. day/night)

How do they feel?

What's the problem?

Harder Questions

What else might happen?

What if....?

What else...?

Why not?

.....should happen, why?

Why is it made of that?

Why wouldn't/shouldn't...?

When?

Why do they need to that?

Why are they and not

Why is better than.....?

How do you know?

What could/should....?

How could they...?

What's the same/different about and ...?

Tell me three things that.... and.... both have?